Murder Investigation *ARRESTS | WANTED SUSPECT [Previously Released] – On April 20, homicide detectives identified the suspects sought in connection to the fatal shooting that occurred on April 2 outside of the Manassas Mall located on Sudley Rd in the Manassas area of Prince William County. Following a press conference held to solicit public assistance, information was received which ultimately led detectives to the suspect's identities. The investigation revealed that the deceased victim, identified as Jahmar Latravern GRAVES, a 22-year-old man, and a third man were inside the mall when an altercation ensued with another group. The parties initially separated before re-encountering one another in the parking lot where shots were fired, and the two victims were struck. Detectives determined the victims were not known to the other parties. Following the investigation, detectives located and charged two of the suspects, both identified as juveniles, and obtained arrest warrants for two adult suspects, identified as Aliquan Gary GILL and Christian Starr HAYNES. The GILL suspect turned himself into police on April 21, while HAYNES remains wanted. A fifth individual sought by police has been identified; however, no charges have been placed at this time.
